Compliments The News Staff.

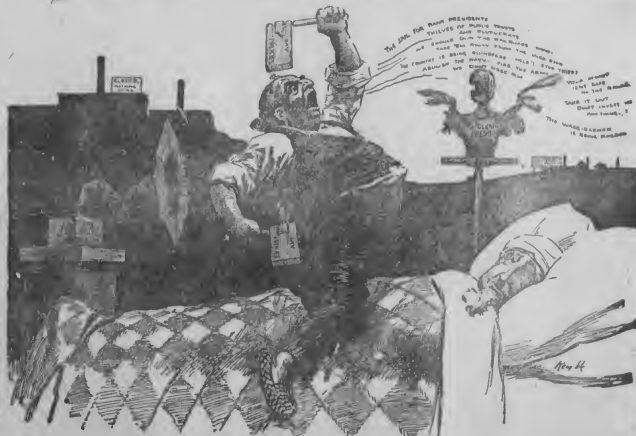

Thursday the Home Bakery presented the News staff with a box of Brown's Home-made Candies. The box contained the different varieties, chocolate, cream and mints. They were all good, especially the pen-out. The mints are delicious and are fine for parties and entertainments. The News staff always appreciates such compliments.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1908.

Taft 300. I'm in this in your hat.

There are a lot of people we will be feeling sorry for about this time next week.

We will tell you next week who's who.

Everybody's hollering for Bill.

All you have to do next Tuesday is to make two cross marks on your ballot, one in the circle under the log cabin and the other in the small square opposite Ben Johnson's name. The officers of the election will do the rest.

Taft and Ben Johnson ought to carry this county by 300.

You Taft men and Johnson men had better get to work. Only six more days left of the campaign. Think how short the time is to secure two good men to represent us and take care of our interests in Washington.

Two hot propositions on Bryanism we might say three, are El Gunther and Ben Pointexter, of Owensboro and Henderson Williams, of Hawesville. They can picture the plan of Bryan and his superficial theories, the dangers of "federal usurpation", the dominator of the "money power" and "do the people rule" to such perfection that you imagine you are standing face to face with the "Peerless One." They are especially hot on "the guaranty plank."

Why are we for Ben Johnson. For the same reason that we are supporting Taft. He is the better man of the two.

Dave Henry is having more fun out of this campaign than any man in the county. He talks Taft from early morn to late at night and wakes up in the night hollering for him.

Gaddie promises to do something for the churches after the election. The truth about this promise is he can't be found after the election.

Gaddie's friends are telling it around in a quiet way that Ben Johnson is a distiller. There is not a word of truth in this report. Ben Johnson never owned a dollars worth of stock nor has he been interested in any other way in a distillery in life. These reports are all spread to influence the temperance vote. The truth of the matter is that the temperance people never had a better friend and never will have than Ben Johnson.

A straw vote taken on the Branch train Monday resulted in 15 for Taft and 16 for Bryan.

We call the attention of our farmer readers to the list of prices of farm products printed on our front page. You know what you are doing now. You don't know what a change of policies in this government would bring about. Our advice is to let well enough alone and stick to your bush. No better friend to the farmer than the Republican party.

Would Mortgage The Farm.

A farmer on Rural Route 2, Empire, Ga., W. A. Floyd by name, says: "Buckner's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw: one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." O-ly 25c, at Severs Drug Co.

"BILLY BRYAN."

By REV. HY J. HOATMAN.

[No tune]

Billy Bryan, Billy Bryan,
Billy Bryan, still a cryin',
Vainly tryin',
The ole' ole' ole' like a chorus,
Jackass chorus most uproarious,
Tried to tour us.

Billy Bryan, Billy Bryan,
Far too high your kite's a-flyin'—
Wind's a-blowin',
Cease to mouth us, cease to mouth us,
Jackass discards don't frighten us,
Only rouse us.

Billy Bryan, Billy Bryan,
Vainly cryin' like one dyin'—
"Call your name,"
Once you'd give us halves for whole us—
Silver dollars, them sixteen us,
For our gold us.

Billy Bryan, Billy Bryan,
Give up cryin'; quit your tryin',
Call your "cry" in,
Once you'd bleed the ass and monkey
Now you'd ride that poor old donkey—
Dug out donkey.

Billy Bryan, Billy Bryan,
Forces routed, forces flyin',
Still you're tryin',
Bill you're a sinner like a lover,
Oft rejected for another,
Better brother.

Billy Bryan, Billy Bryan,
You're a good un, you're a lion
"Little ole' ole' ole' like a lover,
But your count's sounds too chaffy—
Dead it's duff, Glee us Taft-ty!
Give us Taft-ty!

Campaigning in 1908.

[From the Cleveland Plain Dealer.]
The train comes whizzing down the track
And hails amid the cheers,
And on the platform at the back
The candidate appears.

And then the engine hoarsely shrieks
His words are far from plain,
And then the engine hoarsely shrieks
And draws away the train.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

LETTERS FROM WOMEN About Pe-ru-na.

MRS. CLARA L. MILLER.

MRS. S. L. JEWELL.

MRS. MAHALA REID.

The following testimonials represent actual experience of every-day life. They are the truthful utterances of women who have been ill and have found a reliable remedy in Peru-na.

It means a great deal to the women of America to have at hand a remedy capable of giving such relief. Constipation, rheumatism, kidney trouble, bronchitis and a host of other catarrhal conditions are relieved by Peru-na. At least this is what the women say. They have no object in saying such things, except to render truthful testimony to their suffering sisters.

Peru-na is making such friends every day. It is the testimony of the people that has made Peru-na so justly famous.

Chronic Bronchitis.

Mrs. Clara L. Miller, Box 71, Columbia Sta., Seattle, Wash., formerly vice president of Skagway Country Club, writes: "Nine bottles of Peru-na cured me of a protracted case of bronchitis. There is no superior remedy that I know of, as the action of Peru-na on the vast motor system of nerves is very beneficial. It increases the tone of the system and aids nature to perform her functions."

"I have recommended it to a number of my friends, who speak in the same high terms of it. I have certainly found it most efficacious medicine."

Mrs. Christina Smukalla, 400 Winslow Ave., Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "I trust every one suffering from systemic catarrh will read this and profit by it."

"I was in a very bad condition indeed, when I began to take Peru-na, and my friends as well as myself were very much alarmed over my condition. I was always nervous, could not sleep at night, my food did me no good, and I was always tired and weak. I tried several doctors, but found no relief. "Finally I took two bottles of Peru-na and felt like a different woman. However, I did not stop there, but kept on with it until I had taken several bottles, when I felt completely cured, and have remained so ever since. I can eat and sleep now."

A Good Word for Pe-ru-na.

Mrs. S. L. Jewell, R. F. D. 1, Freeport, Pa., writes: "Having used Peru-na myself for many years with beneficial effects, and observing the good it has done others of my acquaintance, I cannot but say a good word in behalf of Peru-na."

Keeps Pe-ru-na in the House.

Mrs. Maria Goerts, Orient, Oklahoma, writes: "My husband, children and myself have used your medicine, and we always keep them in the house in case of necessity. I was restored to health by this medicine, and Dr. Hartman's invaluable advice and books. People ask about me from different places, and are surprised that I can do all of my housework alone, and that I was cured by the doctor of chronic catarrh. My husband was cured of asthma, my daughter of earache and catarrh of the stomach, and my son of catarrh of the throat. When I was sick I weighed 100 pounds; now I weigh 160."

"Dr. Hartman's remedies have proven to be reliable and wonderful. Their effect upon the system is remarkable. Peru-na quiets the nerves, and is a great specific for all forms of chronic catarrh. I am very glad to say that I can write you that I am cured in every way of catarrh, with which I had suffered terribly for ten years. I cannot thank you enough for your advice."

Constipation, Kidney Trouble.

Mrs. Mahala Reid, Corbyville, Ont., Canada, writes:

"Your celebrated remedies have been a wonderful boon to me in my old age. I have not been in so good health for several years as now."

"I was troubled with constipation, rheumatism and kidney trouble. A little over two years ago I completely lost my health, becoming almost helpless, when a dear friend sent me your remedies, Peru-na and Mannala. "I began to take them, following the directions on the bottles. I very soon began to feel benefited by their use, and continued to take them."

"I am now completely recovered from the above ailments, in fact, better than I have been for years past."

"I cannot praise the remedies too highly and will always recommend them to others."

Pe-ru-na in Tablet Form.

For two years Dr. Hartman and his assistants have incessantly labored to create Peru-na in tablet form, and their strenuous labors have just been crowned with success. People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Peru-na tablets, which represent the medicinal ingredients of Peru-na. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peru-na.

The Home Paper.

The home paper should be in every home. No children should grow up ignorant who can be taught to appreciate the home paper. It is said to be the stepping stone of intelligence to all those matters not to be found in books. Give your children a foreign paper, which contains not a word about any person, place or thing which they saw or read, and a good deal of how could you expect them to be interested? But let them have the home paper and read of people whom they meet and of places of which they are familiar and soon an interest is awakened which increases with every arrival of the local paper.

Thus a habit of reading is formed and those children will read the papers all their lives and become intelligent men and women, a credit to ancestors, strong in knowledge of the world as it is today.

A SECRET DIVULGED.

Whereby a Hint is Given to Wives and a Warning to Husbands.

"Oh, dear," sighed the pretty caller as she viewed her friend's new bonnet, fresh from the store, "I wish my husband would allow me to buy such a lovely one!"

"He would, my dear, if you knew how to handle him," answered the lady of the house.

"Now it is a waste of words to try to talk with him," said the pretty caller, with another sigh. "I saw a dream of a bonnet downtown the other day, and the price was just what you say you gave for yours—$25. But when I mentioned the price my husband flew into a rage and declared that $10 was every cent he would advance me to buy a bonnet with and if I couldn't make that do I would have to do without."

"Exactly," commented the lady of the house, dryly. "You can't expect any other treatment when you approach your husband like that. My husband acts just the same way whenever I ask him for money. But this creature called 'man' is very easily misled if you go about it in the right way. Now, when I saw this bonnet downtown I made up my mind that I would be the happy possessor of it, so that night at the dinner table I began going into raptures over a bonnet that I had seen while shopping the price of which was only $50, and then I added as an afterthought that I had quite made up my mind to buy it."

"What!" roared my husband. "Fifty dollars for a bonnet? I guess not! You'll have to put up with $25, and not a cent more do you get?"

As that was all the money I had, I wanted I am afraid that the tears I shed were somewhat forced. But I gained my point, and that was what I wanted.—Detroit Free Press.

A Brief Introduction.

"Long introductions when a man has a speech to make are a bore," says former Senator John C. Spooner. But this have had all kinds, but the most satisfactory one in my career was that of a German mayor of a small town in my state, Wisconsin.

"I was to make a political address, and the opera house was crowded. When it came time to begin, the mayor got up.

"'Mine friends,' he said, 'I have asked to be introduced Senator Spooner, who is to make a speech, yes. Well, I have to go, and he will now do so.'"

Just Curious.

Tourist—What's that crowd down at the courthouse?

Native—Oh, they're tryin' the case o' Sam Johnson, suh.

Tourist—Sam Johnson? Why, that was the man that was lynched yesterday, wasn't it?

Native—Ya-an, suh. But today some o' the boys got to feelin' curious to know what he was lynched for, and so, suh, they're tryin' to get it, suh. —Catholic Standard and Times.

The Editor Explains.

A young lady was recently visiting an editorial office and being shown around by the editor. Approaching a case of drawers upon one of which was the label "MRS.," she said, "Now, how would you pronounce that?"

"Oh," said the editor, "sometimes we pronounce it 'muss' and sometimes 'ma.'"

Read the letter Mrs. E. Hanson, 304 E. Long St., Columbus, Ohio, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was feeling, through the Change of Life, and suffered from nervousness, headaches, and other annoying symptoms. My doctor told me that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was good for me, and since taking it I feel so much better and I can again do my own work. I never forgot to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me during this trying period."

POULTRY NOTES BY C.M. BARNETT, RIVERSIDE, ILL.

HIGH FLYING GUINEAS.

"Buy guineas!" was asked the huckster whose weekly call broke the monotony at the farm.

"Nope; guineas are no good. No sale for 'em. Wouldn't take 'em as a gift."

Two years pass.

Wanted—5,000 young guineas weighing three pounds to the pair. Will pay at least 80 cents per pair for the same.

Wanted—1,000 men and women to raise guineas and sell me the young ones when they weigh one pound each at 40 cents a pair.—Poultry Item, Pennsylvania.

"What, I'll away!" says John Cornsammel. "What does city folks want 5,000 guineas for?"

The guinea that screamed from the big walnut tree has flown a notch higher.

The scarcity of game and the strict Lacey law have sent all the restaurants to guinea.

WILD GAME PRICES.

Canvasback duck..... $4.00
Prairie chicken, broiled..... 2.00
Pheasant, broiled..... 2.50
Roast quail..... 1.50

These are simply guineas in disguise—the pretty polka dot feathered screamers of grandpa's barnyard.

But what's the difference?

They taste good and gamey, have much dark ground meat and don't cost half the real thing. Then few know the anatomy of game so well that they can tell a guinea from a pheasant or a sprout from a redbird.

When the farmer offers guineas, snap them up, and remember French cooks deem guinea eggs best for baking and without equal for beating up cold and stiff.

Originally from Africa, these polka dot birds are most everywhere.

The West Indies are alive with them. English keeps them in game preserves. Austria, Germany and France are breeding them extensively.

Uncle Sam is going in for guineas. Better job in.

They breed in April and May, mate in pairs, lay as high as a hundred eggs

It will be a pleasure for me to answer any questions about Doan's Kidney Pills at any time. I procured them at Fisher's drug store.

Farmer Asked For Flying Machine Clause in His Policy.

Jacob Weiner, a farmer of Nepaug, Conn., went to Winsted, Conn., recently to buy fire insurance. He insisted on there being a flying machine clause in the policy, saying he had read how Orville Wright had perfected his aeroplane, and he thought there was as much danger of a flying machine striking and wrecking his building as lighting if aeronautics keep pace with the development of automobiles.

The farmer wanted a five year policy, but when informed by Justice James Smith the insurance agent that he was ahead of the insurance companies, which have not yet begun to insure against loss by flying machines, he said dejectedly:

"Insure my buildings for one year only. Perhaps the companies will be up to date by the time my policy expires."

BULL MARKET ON CATS.

Japan Finds They Are Real Enemies of Bubonic Plague.

As a result of discoveries by the marine hospital scientists at Washington and health officials of the Japanese government there is about to be a strong bull movement in the cat market. It has been proved that the feline family is immune from bubonic plague and that the most effective way of eradicating the disease from oriental countries and certain Pacific coast states is to scour the earth for pussies and wage war to death on rats and chipmunks.

These little animals are the medium through which the disease spreads most rapidly, and it has been found that cats devour infected specimens and grow fat on them. As a consequence marine hospital officials advise all who love "Felines" and "T-b's" to buy four small legs and good eyes to "hold them for a rise."

Potato Bearing Apple Tree.

An apple tree on John Wilson's farm, near Elliptic, Wyo., is loaded with Irish potatoes instead of fruit. Wilson claims no credit for evolving the phenomenon, being as deeply interested in the cause as are others who have examined the tree and tested the potatoes. The freak sprouts taste like ordinary potatoes, but differ from the ordinary kind in that each eye contains an apple seed.

Discovery of Reed For Matting.

Reed fields covering hundreds of square miles have been discovered in Saskatchewan, Canada, says a Toronto dispatch. The reeds are said to be similar to those from which Chinese and Japanese matting is manufactured. The American government, it is added, has spent much time and money in seeking such material.

Pet and the Lave.

An Irishman, having returned from Italy, where he had been with his master, was asked in the kitchen.

"Now, then, what did the lava I hear the master talking about?"

"Only a drop of the crater," was Pat's reply.

We have passed the fifth milestone in our existence. During that time we have grown from a small beginning to a large and prosperous business. We have endeavored to keep abreast of the times, providing for our depositors every safety known to their protection and security. Our funds are guarded by a modern burglarly and fire-proof safe, and insurance is carried to cover losses by either burglary or robbery. We pay 4 per cent. interest on time deposits, which is more than any other bank in Hecckelridge county pays.

We believe in paying our patrons all we can for the use of their money. The late disastrous bank failures have demonstrated that it is not the oldest and largest bank that is the safest. We take this opportunity to thank our customers whose patronage has helped to make this the largest and best statement in our five years of business.

Respectfully,

JNO. S. ADAIR, Cashier.
